

Full Official Bio

Sydney Sherrill is an up-and-coming singer and songwriter from Dallas, Texas.

Up and coming Artist Sydney Sherrill brings a new and unique sound to pop music. Her powerhouse voice lends to an edgy and beautiful performance. Sydney's influential Artists include Stevie Nicks, Taylor Swift, and Adele. She is a very creative songwriter with melodies and lyrics that are themed both personal and universal.

Sydney got her start in musical theatre productions, developing a natural comfort and poise on stage that propelled her into the vocal performance arena. She quickly earned the attention of Kim Wood Sandusky, one of the country's most sought-after vocal coaches. Together, they continue to develop Sydney's signature sound.

"It's rare to see this depth and tone in a voice so young," said Kim. "I can't wait to see where this talent takes her."

Sydney writes songs on her piano at home. Her original music is narrative in nature and inspired by "snapshots" of stories she sees in her head. She's equal parts girl-next-door and exceptional talent, finding her creative voice through genre-defying songs with themes both personal and universal.

Sydney is currently recording original songs and frequently performs short sets in Dallas-area venues.
